Práxedes Rabat Makambo
Secretary of Academia Ecuatoguineana de la Lengua Española

and

Daniel Owono Sima
Dean of the School of Linguistics and Information Sciences at the National University of Equatorial Guinea

speaking on

Guineanismos y el español de Guinea Ecuatorial

Thursday, March 3, 2022
9:30 a.m.
Humanities Building 1, Room 210

Abstract:
Equatorial Guinea is the only country in Africa where Spanish is the official language since 1982. However, this variety remains understudied and overlooked by L2 Spanish-language textbooks. This presentation seeks to highlight the unique features of Equatorial Guinean Spanish, and to bring attention to the country’s sociocultural history and sociolinguistic reality.